Advanced Programming Practice · 21CSC203P

Unit 3 · Session 5 · SLO 2 — Solved Worksheet

Name: AKARSH MURALI AKARSH MURALI | Reg. No: RA2511030010067

Unit – 3 : Session – 5 : SLO – 2 | JDBC Architecture

Worksheet (Answers)

• Fill: The JDBC API provides a DATABASE (vendor)-independent way to access databases from Java.
• T/F: DriverManager manages a list of database drivers. — TRUE
• MCQ: Interface between a Java application and the database driver → D) DriverManager
• Fill: Class.forName("com.mysql.cj.jdbc.Driver") registers the MySQL JDBC driver manually.
• Find the output: connection succeeds, con != null → A) Connected
• T/F: ResultSet allows forward and backward navigation by default. — FALSE (default is forward-only)
• MCQ: Interface used to execute static SQL queries → A) Statement
• Fill: executeQuery() of Statement returns a RESULTSET object.
• Identify the error: executeUpdate("SELECT ...") → B) executeQuery should be used
• Fill: The JDBC architecture consists of two main layers: the JDBC API and the JDBC DRIVER (Driver API/Manager layer).